

CANCELLATION POLICIES - COVID-19

These temporary COVID-19 cancellation policies are in place during government restrictions relating to specific local provincial and/or country travel regulations. Our standard cancellation policy automatically applies when specific local and/or country restrictions are lifted. We will be regularly monitoring the situation and updating these policies if necessary.

TEMPORARY CANCELLATION POLICY:

STANDARD CANCELLATION POLICY:

No shows or premature departure	forfeit 100%
Cancel or amend 0-30 days prior to arrival*	forfeit 100%
Cancel 31+ days prior to arrival, c.card & SA EFTs	forfeit R300 admin fee

*Cancellations prior to arrival for all deposits paid, excluding no-shows & early departures:

- Management will consider refunds where those days can be re-booked after deducting any costs and differences incurred with respect to the re-booking
- Guests can postpone their 2020-21 stay and re-book up to 30th April 2022, confirming new dates at a later stage if required
- New dates will mean revised rates, due to year & season changes plus property availability, standard minimum nights apply
- Revised bookings (orig. booking cancelled during forfeit period) that then cancel amended dates forfeit 100% deposit paid
- Guests can re-book again should restrictions still be in place for revised dates
- Guests will receive a pro-forma invoice reflecting credit for any paid deposits
- Property Security Deposits will be refunded if paid in advance
- International bank transfers and Debit Cards will be refunded at the ZAR amount we receive minus bank fees

We strongly recommend taking out sufficient travel insurance for cancellations and medical cover
