

CANCELLATION POLICIES - COVID-19

These temporary COVID-19 cancellation policies are in place should government restrictions, relating to specific local provincial and/or country travel regulations, occur. Our standard cancellation policy applies to all bookings at all other times and automatically when specific restrictions are lifted.

We will be monitoring and updating these policies if necessary.

TEMPORARY CANCELLATION POLICY:

Cancellations prior to arrival for deposits paid, excluding no-shows & early departures:

- Management will consider refunds where those days can be re-booked, after deducting any costs and differences incurred with respect to the re-booking
- Guests can postpone their 2020-22 stay and re-book and stay up to 19th December 2022, confirming new dates at a later stage if required.
- All credit not used falls away after above date
- New dates will mean revised rates, due to year & season changes plus property availability, standard minimum nights apply
- Revised bookings (orig. booking canceled during forfeit period) that then cancel amended dates forfeit 100% deposit paid
- Guests can re-book again should restrictions still be in place for revised dates
- Guests will receive a pro-forma invoice reflecting credit for any paid deposits
- Property Security Deposits will be refunded if paid in advance
- International bank transfers and Debit Cards will be refunded at the ZAR amount we receive minus bank fees

We recommend taking out sufficient travel insurance for cancellations and medical cover
